Women's Clubs Set Record In Point of Attendance

In Addition to Regular Meetings, Many Organizations Arrange Social and Philanthropic Affairs, While One, the Mozart, Schedules Golf Tournaments

All the women's clubs in greater New York have started on what appears to be a record season in point of attendance, in interesting programs of a musical, literary and political nature, and in enthusiasm.

The meetings have been largely attended and the interest shown by the women in their various organizations is greater than ever before. In addition to the regular monthly meetings, most of the clubs are arranging for social and philanthropic affairs for almost every week of the season, and one organization, the New York Mozart Society, has gone in for golf tournaments in addition to its regular morning musicals, evening concerts and various social activities.

Many meetings are scheduled for this week, and interesting, attractive programs have been arranged for the members and their guests.

Golf Tournament To-morrow

The Golf Circle of the New York Mozart Society, Mrs. Noble McConnell, president, will hold its first tournament to-morrow at the Scarsdale Golf Club. A cup will be put up for the men's tournament, a silver flower vase for the women and a cup, which must be won three times, to obtain permanent possession of it.
